National Convention : The Issue

The Backdrop

In spite of specific attention & action of many forms there in Countries including India have acknowledged the existing atrocities on women and children. Constraints and obstacles faced by them warrants action to ensure equal rights and inherent human dignity of women and children. Women's empowerment and their full participation in decision making process and access to power, gender sensitive policies & program require further commitment from the government and civil society. The national Family Health Survey and Census 2010 have revealed that women in Odisha and in other parts of the country continue to suffer ill-treatment, oppression and violence in different forms. It is high time to influence the policy makers and key actors in administration in favour of children and women through outputs of the proposed convention.

The Contention/Mission

Bringing together social activists and women organizations in a common platform to promote solidarity and jointly further action to ensure human rights and fundamental freedoms for all women and girl children.

Accounting public opinion on all forms of discrimination against women and girl children, boys and nations.
