NATIONAL CONVENTION : THE ISSUE TODAY

In spite of specific attention & action of many forms there in.

Countries including India have acknowledged the increasing atrocities on women and children, Constraints and obstacles faced by them warrants action to ensure equal rights and inherent human dignity of women and children, Women's empowerment and their full participation in decision making process and access to power, gender sensitive policies & program require further commitment from the government and civil society. The national Family Health Survey and Census 2011 have revealed that women in Odisha and in other parts of the country continue to suffer indignity, oppression and violence in different forms. It is high time to influence the policy makers and key actors in administration in favour of children and women through outputs of the proposed convention.

The Contention/Mission

- Bridging together social activists and women organizations on a common platform to promote
- solidarity and intensify further action to ensure human rights and fundamental freedom for all women and girl children.
- Rekindling public opinion on all forms of discrimination against women and girl children, born and unborn.
- Discussing all issues affecting women and children and recommend action for improving the current situation.
- Uniting & establishing a network among different human right defenders and institutions for elimination of all forms of discrimination against women and children.
- Encouraging men to join hands with women for effective implementation of policies aimed at
- preserving human rights of women and children.
